

BON SECOURS COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
(AUTONOMOUS)
DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
OUTCOME BASED EDUCATION - M.Com (2024-2025 onwards)
PG

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

On completion of the M.Com programme, students will be able to:

- PO1: Comprehensive Knowledge: Demonstrate a robust understanding of concepts, principles, and practices, applying them effectively to real-world issues.
- PO2: Analytical and Decision-Making Skills: Use quantitative and qualitative analysis to evaluate, formulating informed strategies to address organizational and economic challenges.
- PO3: Professional and Ethical Practices: Exhibit professionalism and ethical integrity, decision-making, with a commitment to responsible and sustainable practices.
- PO4: Entrepreneurship and Innovation: Develop entrepreneurial skills and identify Opportunities for business solutions that foster socio-economic development and sustainability.
- PO5: Effective Communication and Networking:
Communicate complex business ideas clearly and effectively, and network in professional environments to build strategies
- PO6: Lifelong Learning and Career Advancement: Pursue continuous professional development, adapting to changes in the domain landscape and embracing lifelong learning to enhance career growth.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

- PSO1: Gain practical experience in the fields of commerce, finance, management, project development, and the analysis of business data.
- PSO2: Utilize software tools to perform in-depth financial analysis specifically designed for the corporate sector
- PSO3: Leverage acquired knowledge to successfully tackle real-world challenges faced in professional environments.

PSO4: Adapt skills and practices to meet the demands of Industry 4.0, embracing current technological advancements.

PSO5: Showcase strong communication skills with ICT professionals to promote collaboration and improve project results.

PROGRAMME EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEOS)

PEO1: Develop comprehensive knowledge in commerce, accounting, economic and enabling students to apply concepts and techniques in commerce to meet current and future business expectations.

PEO2: Cultivate students' analytical, critical thinking, and problem-solving abilities to effectively tackle complex business challenges using both quantitative and qualitative data, and fostering a global perspective.

PEO3: Equip students with practical skills in commerce and its allied and interdisciplinary disciplines through hands-on training, internships, and real-world projects.

PEO4: Enhance students' intellectual, personal, interpersonal, and societal skills, responsibility and social awareness and focusing on relevant professional careers to promote professional growth.

PEO5: Foster entrepreneurial mind-set and leadership qualities, empowering students to innovate, take initiative, and lead effectively in various business settings, including starting their own ventures.

PEO6: Promote lifelong and self-directed learning and, preparing students to update their knowledge and skills in response to wide career options, and technological advancements.

